Textbook
Differential Equations and Linear Algebra: Second edition, by Farlow, Hall, McDill

Homework

Homework will be posted on Owlspace on each Friday and are due the next Friday before lecture.

Homework assignments are not pledged. Collaboration and sharing of ideas are allowed. However, upon turning in your homework, please write your individual solutions. Your homework grades will be based on both correctness and clarity of the solutions. Justification is always required unless otherwise indicated.

Late homework assignments will not be accepted. The lowest 3 homework scores will be dropped. You are not encouraged to use calculators for homework.

Exams
There will be two midterm exams (7-9pm on Monday 9/26 and 7-9pm on Thursday 11/3 respectively) and a cumulative final exam . Time of final will be announced later when scheduled. If you need to travel during the semester, please make plans accordingly. Make-up exams will not be given unless requested with proof of necessity (conflict with other exams, participation of events on behalf of Rice etc.) or under certain medical conditions. Send me email if you need to schedul make-up exams at least a weak in advance.

It is the policy of the Rice Mathematics Department that no final may be given early to accommodate student with travel plans.

Exams will be pledged, and the use of books, notes, or any electronic device is not allowed. Any complaints or requests concerning the grading of exams must be made within 3 days after receiving the graded exam.
